NEW ALTERNATIVES FUND
MANAGEMENT'S COMMENTARY
AND DISCUSSION OF FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE
FOR THE YEAR 2018 (UNAUDITED)

Dear Shareholders:

2018 was a challenging year politically, socially and financially. Financial markets do not, generally, react positively to instability and unpredictable developments and the world seemed to have a fair supply of both during the year. At the same time, there were more companies and a greater range of investments available than ever before.

The UN Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC), the driving force behind the Paris Agreements to limit the rise of greenhouse gas emissions and reverse the effects of global climate change, released an even more pessimistic interim report. Convening in South Korea, the IPCC document noted that there was virtually no chance the world would meet its “soft” target of limiting average global temperature rise to 1.5 degrees Celsius. It also reported that the destructive effects that were likely to occur would, in all probability, be more serious and arrive sooner than anyone had anticipated when the agreements were being drawn up just a few years ago.

A number of new conservative governments, including the Trump administration in the U.S., Brazil, Australia, and Poland among others, continued their policies of rolling back environmental regulations, and emission control measures, and attempted to embrace and support expansions of fossil fuel development. A study released by the research firm Rhodium Group noted that carbon emissions rose in the U.S. by 3.4 percent in 2018 after declining in the previous 3 years. This change happened despite the fact that less coal was being used for electric power generation than ever before.

Recently, however, we've seen positive responses growing and greater levels of regional and local actions to reverse this course and put us back on a path toward a renewable energy future. We are optimistic that this economic sector has enough traction and financial support to push past the obstacles that have been thrown up in the last two years. In the U.S., a growing number of states have adopted their own renewable energy standards; a significant number of corporations, including Amazon, Google, Apple, Etsy, Akamai, Brown Forman, Merck — many of them not associated previously with sustainable policies — have announced their goal to operate entirely on renewable energy within the next 10-15 years. According to a recent report by Bloomberg New Energy Finance, corporations in the U.S. and overseas signed agreements to directly buy 13.4 Gigawatts (GW) of electricity from renewable sources in 2018.

The mid-term elections in the U.S. not only returned the House of Representatives to the more environmentally minded Democrats, but also brought administrations with a more enlightened view of climate change and renewable energy to a number of states, cities and municipalities across the country.

But before all these recent developments, what were the forces affecting the broader renewable energy sector and New Alternatives Fund in particular?

In the earlier part of the year, there was concern that the Federal Reserve Bank's policy of continuing to gradually raise interest rates would diminish the financial margins of utilities, technology firms and power producers who would be paying more on the loans they use to fund expansion and development.

NEW ALTERNATIVES FUND
MANAGEMENT'S COMMENTARY
AND DISCUSSION OF FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE
FOR THE YEAR 2018 (UNAUDITED)

This anxiety was relieved somewhat when the Fed, reacting to the sluggish pace of recent economic growth, along with pressure from Trump, announced that there would be no new interest rate increases in the near future. Equity markets were also reacting to concerns that the U.S. and China would be drawn into an extended trade war as both governments seemed bent on a course of “one upping” each other with an expanding number of tariffs on products headed for each other’s shores.

The general volatility of the current markets is being stoked by the U.S. government’s apparent lack of a coherent economic policy.

The announced bankruptcy of the California utility, Pacific Gas & Electric (PG&E) due to claims resulting from the catastrophic wild fires this past fall, cast a pall on several renewable energy companies (including several in the Fund’s portfolio) that had long term power purchase agreements with the utility. It appears that PG&E will use the bankruptcy to attempt to withdraw from some of these contracts and deny the power producers their contracted income from the wind and solar projects they developed. The Fund holdings most impacted by this were Clearway Energy and Nextera Energy Partners. As you may imagine, shareholders of these companies were unsettled by these events. As we were finishing this report, Clearway Energy announced it would be cutting its dividend as a result of lost earnings from the PG&E bankruptcy. It was a stark illustration of how climate change-related disasters would directly affect the financial fortunes of specific companies.

We continue to see relatively strong growth of renewable power around the world and the expansion of international companies into new markets. A report from the American Wind Energy Association (AWEA) noted that, as of the end of 2017, among the top 5 owners of U.S. wind capacity was EDP Renovaveis, a Spanish company among the Fund’s portfolio holdings. NextEra Energy and Avangrid, both also held by the Fund, were also in this group. The list of the top turbine suppliers in the U.S. for that period was led by Vestas Wind Systems of Denmark, with Siemens Gamesa of Spain at number 3 on the list, both Fund holdings.

The U.S. is late to the game of developing off shore wind power. There is only one, relatively small wind project currently operated by Orsted off Block Island. The next project on the horizon is Orsted’s Deepwater Wind, generating up to 130 Megawatts (MW) being sited in Long Island Sound, due for completion in 2022.

Another company in the Fund’s portfolio, China’s BYD, is the largest manufacturer of electric vehicles in the world. Until recently, its market was almost exclusively domestic. It has now embarked on wide distribution of its electric buses to cities around the world. It has even opened a manufacturing plant in California for its push into the North American market. BYD is also becoming a leading manufacturer of lithium ion batteries for both transportation and energy storage and back up power capacity.

These are just a small sample of the forces that continue to push and pull the renewable energy sector during this period.

MANAGEMENT'S COMMENTARY
AND DISCUSSION OF FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE
FOR THE YEAR 2018 (UNAUDITED)

Fund Performance: The Net Asset Value (“NAV”) of New Alternatives Fund’s Class A Shares was $55.54 on January 1, 2018 and closed at $48.48 after payment of a dividend from ordinary income of $0.33 per share and a long-term capital gain distribution of $2.88 per share on December 31, 2018. The Fund’s Investor Shares opened at a NAV of $55.41 on January 1, 2018 and ended at $48.36 after payment of a dividend from ordinary income of $0.21 per share and a long-term capital gain distribution of $2.88 per share on December 31, 2018. The Fund’s net assets decreased from $213,079,428 on December 31, 2017 to $174,369,876 on December 31, 2018, primarily due to depreciation of the Fund’s holdings and net redemptions of capital stock.

The Fund’s Class A Shares delivered a total return of -6.93 percent and the Investor Shares closed at -7.15 percent at year end on December 31, 2018. During the period from January 1, 2018 to December 31, 2018, the number of the Fund’s Class A Shares outstanding decreased from 3,777,599 to 3,520,688 for a net loss of 256,911. The Fund added a net total of 16,796 Investor Shares, increasing the number of those shares from 59,105 to 75,901.

Just under 40 percent of the Fund’s investments at December 31, 2018 were in U.S. based companies, including 6.9 percent held in cash (and cash equivalents) at U.S. banks and credit unions. This is down from 44 percent on December 31, 2017. European companies comprised 35.9 percent of the Fund’s holdings (with 16.2 percent priced in Euros); followed by Canada, 12.4 percent; Asia, 7.1 percent; and Bermuda, 4.8 percent. Details are contained on page 15.

Portfolio Holdings and Changes: During the period from July 1 to December 31, 2018, we continued to gradually diversify the Fund’s holdings. By year end, we had added 13 companies and sold off our positions in 3 to bring the total number of companies in the Fund’s portfolio to 37, up from 28 at December 31, 2017. For a description of the changes in the Fund’s holdings during the period from January 1 to June 30, 2018, please refer to our Semi-Annual Financial Report, which is available on our web site at: <http://www.newalternativesfund.com/wp-content/uploads/2018/08/New-Alternatives-Fund-Semi-Annual-Report-6-30-2018.pdf>.

In addition to the new holdings as of June 30, 2018, we bought shares of 5 more companies:

- ABB Ltd., (Switzerland), an industrial company that produces electrical power and energy grid components;
- BYD Company Ltd. (China), the world’s largest manufacturer of electric cars and buses, also produces lithium ion batteries and other energy storage technology;
- Johnson Controls International PLC (Ireland), manufactures and installs energy control systems for commercial buildings, and manufactures batteries and other energy efficiency technology for transportation systems;
- Sprouts Farmers Market, Inc., a chain of natural and organic food stores;
- Xylem, Inc., manufactures water infrastructure systems, water conservation equipment and wastewater treatment technology.

NEW ALTERNATIVES FUND
MANAGEMENT'S COMMENTARY
AND DISCUSSION OF FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE
FOR THE YEAR 2018 (UNAUDITED)

We sold off our holdings of Tilt Renewables Ltd., a New Zealand based wind and solar power generation company. Tilt was the target of a takeover bid from Infratil Ltd., a more diversified renewable energy power producer in New Zealand (also in the Fund's holdings) and we found we could sell off our shares at a slightly better price than the Infratil offer.

The Fund also continued to gradually trim some of our larger holdings, including a number of our YieldCos and independent power producers, which is the largest concentration of our investments. These included: Atlantica Yield PLC (Great Britain); EDP Renovaveis SA (Spain); Orsted A/S (Denmark); Pattern Energy Group, Inc., Class A; and TerraForm Power, Inc., Class A. We also reduced our shares of other companies which we felt were overweight in the Fund including wind turbine manufacturers Siemens Gamesa Renewable Energy SA (Spain) and Vestas Wind Systems A/S (Denmark). The last major holding we reduced during this period was Hannon Armstrong Sustainable Infrastructure Capital, Inc., a real estate investment trust that funds energy efficiency upgrades in buildings and finances renewable energy projects.

After an incredibly challenging year for broader tech and energy companies, including most renewable energy related firms, there were very few stocks in the Fund's portfolio that showed any gain for the year. Among the Fund holdings that closed at a high share price at December 31, 2018 were: Acciona SA (Spain), up 8.6 percent; EDP Renovaveis, up 7.8 percent; Infratil Ltd., up 9.9 percent; Orsted A/S, up 2.9 percent; Trustpower Ltd. (New Zealand), up 2.2 percent; Vestas, up 14.8 percent; Terna Rete Elettrica Nazionale SPA (Italy), up 6.9 percent; BYD Co., up 3.3 percent; and Tesla, up 2 percent.

One circumstance that worked in the Fund's favor this year was that most of the companies that did show a gain for the year were among our larger holdings, including Vestas, Orsted, Acciona and EDP Renovaveis. Despite this fortuitous circumstance in 2018, we are still committed to greater diversification of the Fund's holdings to reduce volatility and risk going forward.

Just about every other company in the Fund saw their share prices retreat in 2018. The biggest "losers" included: Panasonic Corp. (Japan), down 39.3 percent; Boralex, Inc. Class A (Canada), down 24.3 percent; First Solar, Inc., down 37.1 percent; Owens Corning, Inc., down 52.6 percent; Hannon Armstrong, down 20.8 percent; and Sims Metal Management Ltd. (Australia), down 40.3 percent.

Cash Holdings: We ended the year with approximately 7.2 percent of the Fund's net assets in cash. We continue to avoid short-term U.S. Treasury Bills as interest rates remain low. A portion of this cash is invested in a series of Certificates of Deposit (CDs) at socially responsible banks and local credit unions.

Income from Dividends and Interest: The per share dividend for Class A Shares went down from $1.03 in 2017 to $0.33 in 2018. The per share dividend for Investor Shares declined from $0.92 in 2017 to $0.21 in 2018. The lower payment of ordinary dividends in 2018 was the result of the Fund's need to sell off some positions in dividend paying holdings to meet redemptions and the recharacterization of payments from a number of the Fund's investments as Returns of Capital. In addition, when Siemens

AG merged with Gamesa in 2017, part of its payment was considered a dividend, creating a one-time boost of the payment to investors for that year. While this situation reduced the dividend payment, it increased the capital gain return as noted in the next paragraph.

Realized and Unrealized Capital Gain/Loss: The Fund paid a net realized long-term capital gain of $2.88 per share for both Class A Shares and Investor Shares in 2018. During the year ended December 31, 2018, the Fund had net realized and unrealized gains of -$14,259,810.

This year's depreciation was due primarily to the overall depreciation of many of the Fund's holdings and a small net loss of $16,050 in foreign currency transactions.

Expenses: The Fund's cost of operations decreased slightly in 2018. The number of shareholder accounts also decreased, along with the overall net assets of the Fund. The amounts paid to the investment advisor, Accrued Equities, Inc., the Bank of New York Mellon (the Fund's custodian) and BNY Investment Servicing (U.S.), Inc. (the Fund's accounting agent, transfer agent and administrator) are largely based on net assets. The Fund's net assets decreased during 2018, ending approximately 18.17 percent lower for the entire year. BNY Mellon, in its role as transfer agent, bases its fees on the number of shareholder accounts established during the year. This figure decreased by approximately 4.55 percent. Total Fund Expenses decreased by $34,675, or 1.57 percent. However, the total number of shares declined by a greater percentage, approximately 6.26 percent, so the per share cost increased. As a result, the expense ratio for the Class A Shares increased from 1.07 percent in 2017 to 1.12 percent in 2018. The expense ratio for the Investor Shares includes an additional 12b-1 fee of 0.25 percent for an expense ratio of 1.37 percent for 2018, up from 1.32 percent in 2017.

The Fund Web Site/On-Line Capabilities: We continue to build the Fund's on-line functions and web site features. All relevant Fund documents are posted on our web site which can be accessed at: www.newalternativesfund.com.

We encourage all shareholders to create an on-line account log-on which is available through a link on our web site. When you access the web site, go to the "Open An Account" link on the selection bar and follow the instructions to create your account access. You can use this link to open an account, purchase or redeem shares, check the current balance of your account, sign up for e-delivery of reports and documents, and perform account maintenance such as address changes.

AND DISCUSSION OF FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE
FOR THE YEAR 2018 (UNAUDITED)

Investment Objective: The Fund continues to seek to achieve long-term capital appreciation, with income as a secondary objective. We continue to seek these objectives by investing in equity securities. The equity securities in which the Fund invests consists primarily of common stocks. Other equity securities in which the Fund may invest include YieldCos, American Depository Receipts (“ADRs”), real estate investment trusts (“REITs”) and publicly traded master limited partnerships (“MLPs”). The Fund makes investments in a wide range of industries and companies of all sizes. The Fund invests in equity securities of both U.S. and foreign companies, and has no limitation on the percentage of assets invested in the U.S. or abroad. Under normal market conditions, at least 25 percent of the Fund’s total assets will be invested in equity securities of companies in the alternative energy industry.

“Alternative Energy” (or “Renewable Energy”) means the production, conservation, storage and transmission of energy to reduce pollution and harm to the environment, particularly when compared to conventional coal, oil or nuclear energy.

Risk Disclosure: All investments are subject to inherent risks. An investment in the Fund is no exception. Accordingly, you may lose money by investing in the Fund. This disclosure of risks is not complete. Go to our web site at: www.newalternativesfund.com., call 800-423-8383 or write to the Fund to obtain a prospectus that contains a more complete description of risks associated with investment in the Fund and other information about the Fund.

FUND EXPENSE EXAMPLE
(Unaudited)

As a shareholder of the Fund, you incur two types of costs: (1) transaction costs such as the sales charge and redemption fees; and (2) ongoing costs, including management fees, distribution (i.e., Rule 12b-1) fees and other Fund expenses. This example is intended to help you understand your ongoing costs (in dollars) of investing in the Fund and to compare these costs with the ongoing costs of investing in other mutual funds.

The example is based on an investment of $1,000 invested at the beginning of the period shown (July 1, 2018) and held for the entire six months ended December 31, 2018.

Actual Expenses

The first line of the table below provides information about actual account values and actual expenses. You may use the information in this line, together with the amount you invested, to estimate the expense that you paid over the period. Simply divide your account value by $1,000 (for example, an $8,600 account value divided by $1,000 = 8.6), then multiply the result by the number in the first line under the heading entitled “Expenses Paid During Six Months Ended December 31, 2018” to estimate the expenses you paid on your account during this period.

Note: The Fund’s Transfer Agent, BNY Mellon Investment Servicing (US) Inc., charges an annual IRA maintenance fee of $20 for IRA accounts. That fee is not reflected in the accompanying table.

Hypothetical Example for Comparison Purposes

The second line of the table below provides information about hypothetical account values and hypothetical expenses based on the Fund’s actual expense ratio and an assumed rate of return of 5% per year before expenses, which is not the Fund’s actual return. The hypothetical account values and expenses may not be used to estimate the actual ending account balance or expenses you paid for the period. You may use this information to compare the ongoing costs of investing in the Fund and other funds. To do so, compare this 5% hypothetical example with the 5% hypothetical examples that appear in the shareholder reports of other funds.

Please note that the expenses shown in the table are meant to highlight your ongoing costs only and do not reflect any transactional costs such as the sales charge, redemption fees or exchange fees. Therefore, the second line of the table is useful in comparing ongoing costs only, and will not help you determine the relative total costs of owning different funds. In addition, if transactional costs were included, your costs would have been higher.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
For the Year Ended December 31, 2018

1) ORGANIZATION – New Alternatives Fund (the “Trust”) was organized as a Delaware statutory trust on June 12, 2014. The Trust currently offers one series of shares, also known as “New Alternatives Fund” (the “Fund”). The Fund is the successor to New Alternatives Fund, Inc. (the “Predecessor Company”), a New York corporation that commenced operations in 1982. The Fund is a diversified, open-end management investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “1940 Act”). On November 14, 2014, the Predecessor Company was reorganized into the Fund. The Fund was organized for the purpose of continuing the investment operations and performance history of the Predecessor Company and prior to the reorganization had no substantial assets or prior history of investment operations. The Fund currently offers two classes of shares: Class A Shares and Investor Shares. Class A Shares represent a continuance of the original class of shares offered by the Predecessor Company. Class A Shares are sold subject to a front-end sales charge. Class A Shares of the Fund do not have any distribution (i.e., Rule 12b-1) charges, service charges or redemption fees. Investor Shares are not subject to a sales charge but are subject to a 2.00% redemption fee imposed on any Investor Shares redeemed within sixty (60) days of their initial purchase. Any redemption fee imposed is retained by the Fund and is meant to deter short-term trading in Investor Shares and to offset any transaction and other costs associated with short-term trading. For the year ended December 31, 2018, no redemption fees were imposed on the redemption of Investor Shares. Investor Shares are also subject to 12b-1 fees. The investment objective of the Fund is long-term capital appreciation, with income as a secondary objective. The Fund seeks to achieve its investment objective by investing in equity securities. The equity securities in which the Fund invests consist primarily of common stocks. Other equity securities in which the Fund may invest include Yield Cos, American Depositary Receipts, real estate investment trusts and publicly-traded master limited partnerships. The Fund makes investments in a wide range of industries and in companies of all sizes. The Fund invests in equity securities of both U.S. and foreign companies, and has no limitation on the percentage of assets invested in the U.S. or abroad. Under normal market conditions, at least 25% of the Fund’s total assets will be invested in equity securities of companies in the alternative energy industry. “Alternative Energy” means the production, conservation, storage and transmission of energy to reduce pollution and harm to the environment, particularly when compared to conventional coal, oil or nuclear energy.

2) ACCOUNTING POLICIES – The Fund is an investment company that follows the accounting and reporting guidance of Accounting Standards Codification Topic 946 applicable to Investment Companies. The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed by the Fund.

A. PORTFOLIO VALUATION – The Fund’s net asset value (“NAV”) is calculated once daily at the close of regular trading hours on the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) (generally 4:00 p.m. Eastern time) on each day the NYSE is open. Securities held by the Fund are valued based on the official closing price or the last reported sale price on national securities exchanges where they are primarily traded or on the National Association of Securities Dealers Automatic Quotation System (“NASDAQ”) market system as of the close of business on the day the securities are being valued. That is normally 4:00 p.m. Eastern time. If there were no sales on that day or the securities are traded on other over-the-counter markets, the mean of the last bid and asked prices prior to the market close is used. Short-term debt securities having a remaining maturity of 60 days or less are valued based on amortized cost. Certificates of Deposit are valued at amortized cost, provided such amount approximates market value and are categorized in Level 2.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Non-U.S. equity securities are valued based on their most recent closing market prices on their primary market and are translated from the local currency into U.S. dollars using current exchange rates on the day of valuation. The Fund may hold securities that are primarily listed on foreign exchanges that trade on weekends or other days when the Fund does not price its shares. As such, the Fund's NAV may change on days when shareholders will not be able to purchase or redeem Fund shares.

If the market price of a security held by the Fund is unavailable at the time the Fund prices its shares at 4:00 p.m. Eastern time, the Fund will use the "fair value" of such security as determined in good faith by Accrued Equities, Inc., the Fund's investment advisor, under methods established by and under the general supervision of the Trust's Board of Trustees. The Fund may use fair value pricing if the value of a security it holds has been materially affected by events occurring before the Fund's pricing time but after the close of the primary markets or exchange on which the security is traded. This most commonly occurs with foreign securities, but may occur in other cases as well. Certain foreign securities are fair valued by utilizing an external pricing service in the event of any significant market movements between the time the Fund valued such foreign securities and the earlier closing of foreign markets. The Fund does not invest in unlisted securities.

The inputs and valuations techniques used to measure fair value of the Fund's net assets are summarized into three levels as described in the hierarchy below:

- Level 1 - Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Fund has the ability to access.
- Level 2 - Observable inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly. These inputs may include quoted prices for the identical instrument on an inactive market, prices for similar instruments, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, yield curves, default rates and similar data.
- Level 3 - Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability, to the extent relevant observable inputs are not available, representing the Fund's own assumptions about the assumptions a market participant would use in valuing the asset or liability, and would be based on the best information available.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
For the Year Ended December 31, 2018

The inputs or methodology used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities.

The following is a summary of the inputs used, as of December 31, 2018, in valuing the Fund's assets carried at fair value:

	Total Value at 12/31/2018	Level 1 – Quoted Price	Level 2 – Significant Observable Inputs	Level 3 – Significant Unobservable Inputs
Common Stocks
Alternate Energy	$ 136,088,291	$ 134,855,314	$ 1,232,977	$ —

Certificates of Deposit	500,000	—	500,000	—
Total	$ 162,338,070	$ 160,605,093	$ 1,732,977	$ —

At the end of each calendar quarter, management evaluates the classification of Level 1, 2 and 3 assets and liabilities. Various factors are considered, such as changes in liquidity from the prior reporting period; whether or not a broker is willing to execute at the quoted price; the depth and consistency of prices from third party pricing services; and the existence of contemporaneous, observable trades in the market. Additionally, management evaluates the classification of Level 1 and Level 2 assets and liabilities on a quarterly basis for changes in listings or delistings on national exchanges.

The Fund utilizes an external pricing service to fair value certain foreign securities in the event of any significant market movements between the time the Fund valued certain foreign securities and the earlier closing of foreign markets. Such fair valuations are categorized as Level 2 in the hierarchy. Significant market movements were not deemed to have occurred at December 31, 2018, and therefore, the Fund did not utilize the external pricing service model adjustments. Transfers in and out between Levels are based on values at the end of the period. The Fund did not hold any Level 3 categorized securities during the year ended December 31, 2018.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
For the Year Ended December 31, 2018

B. FOREIGN CURRENCY TRANSLATION – Investment securities and other assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollar amounts at the date of valuation. Purchases and sales of investment securities and income and expense items denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollar amounts on the respective dates of such transactions. If foreign currency translations are not available, the foreign exchange rate(s) will be valued at fair market value using procedures approved by the Trust’s Board of Trustees.

The Fund does not isolate that portion of the results of operations resulting from changes in foreign exchange rates on investments from the fluctuations arising from changes in market prices of securities held. Such fluctuations are included with the net realized and unrealized gain or loss from investments.

Reported net realized foreign exchange gains or losses arise from sales of foreign currencies, currency gains or losses realized between the trade and settlement dates on securities transactions, and the difference between the amounts of dividends, interest, and foreign withholding taxes recorded on the Fund’s books and the U.S. dollar equivalent of the amounts actually received or paid.

Foreign Securities – Investing in foreign securities (including depositary receipts traded on U.S. exchanges but representing shares of foreign companies) involves more risks than investing in U.S. securities. Risks of investing in foreign companies include currency exchange rates between foreign currencies and the U.S. dollar. The political, economic and social structures of some foreign countries may be less stable and more volatile than those in the U.S. Brokerage commissions and other fees may be higher for foreign securities. Foreign companies may not be subject to the same disclosure, accounting, auditing and financial reporting standards as U.S. companies. These risks can increase the potential for losses in the Fund and affect its share price.

C. SECURITY TRANSACTIONS AND RELATED INVESTMENT INCOME – Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date (date order to buy or sell is executed). The cost of investments sold is determined by use of specific lots for both financial reporting and income tax purposes in determining realized gains and losses on investments.

D. INVESTMENT INCOME AND EXPENSE RECOGNITION – Dividend income is recorded as of the ex-dividend date. Foreign dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date or as soon as possible after the Fund determines the existence of a dividend declaration after exercising reasonable diligence. Interest income, including amortization/accretion of premium and discount, is accrued daily. Expenses are accrued on a daily basis.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

E. DIVIDENDS AND DISTRIBUTIONS TO SHAREHOLDERS – Dividends from net investment income and distributions from net realized capital gains, if any, will be declared and paid at least annually to shareholders and recorded on ex-date. Income dividends and capital gain distributions are determined in accordance with U.S. federal income tax regulations which may differ from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

F. U.S. TAX STATUS – No provision is made for U.S. income taxes as it is the Fund’s intention to qualify for and elect the tax treatment applicable to regulated investment companies under Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and make the requisite distributions to its shareholders which will be sufficient to relieve it from U.S. income and excise taxes.

G. USE OF ESTIMATES IN THE PREPARATION OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS – The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

H. OTHER – In the normal course of business, the Fund may enter into contracts that provide general indemnifications. The Fund’s maximum exposure under these arrangements is dependent on claims that may be made against the Fund in the future, and therefore, cannot be estimated; however, based on experience, the risk of material loss for such claims is considered remote.

I. ALLOCATION – Investment income earned, realized capital gains and losses, and unrealized appreciation and depreciation for the Fund are allocated daily to each class of shares based upon its proportionate share of total net assets of the Fund. Class-specific expenses are charged directly to the class incurring the expense. Common expenses, which are not attributable to a specific class, are allocated daily to each class of shares based upon its proportionate share of total net assets of the Fund.

J. CASH – Cash represents amounts held on deposit with the Fund’s custodian bank. Balances at times may exceed federally insured limits.

K. RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENT – Effective November 15, 2018, the SEC amended existing rules intended to modernize reporting and disclosure of information.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
For the Year Ended December 31, 2018

These amendments relate to Regulation S-X which sets forth the form and content of financial statements. The amendment requires collapsing the components of distributable earnings on the Statement of Assets and Liabilities and collapsing the distributions paid to shareholders on the Statements of Changes in Net Assets. Management has evaluated the implications of adopting these amendments and there is no significant impact on the financial statements and accompanying notes.

In August 2018, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Accounting Standards Update 2018-13 “Changes to the Disclosure Requirements for Fair Value Measurement” which modifies disclosure requirements for fair value measurements. The guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019 and for interim periods within those fiscal years. Management is currently evaluating the impact of this guidance to the Fund.

3) SHARES OF BENEFICIAL INTEREST – There are unlimited, no par value shares of beneficial interest authorized. On December 31, 2018, the Fund’s total shares outstanding were 3,596,589. * During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017, the Fund was reimbursed $3,227 by BNY Mellon Investment Servicing (U.S.), Inc. for losses incurred on the cost of correcting the Fund's net asset value.

4) MANAGEMENT FEE AND OTHER TRANSACTIONS WITH AFFILIATES—Accrued Equities, Inc. (“Accrued Equities” or the “Advisor”), an SEC registered investment advisor and broker-dealer, serves as investment advisor to the Fund pursuant to an Investment Advisory Agreement, and as an underwriter (but not a principal underwriter) of the Fund’s shares pursuant to a Sub-Distribution Agreement. For its investment advisory services, the Fund pays Accrued Equities an annual management fee of 1.00% of the first $25 million of average daily net assets; 0.50% of the next $475 million of average daily net assets; and 0.40% of average daily net assets more than $500 million. The Fund incurred management fees of $1,089,071 for the year ended December 31, 2018.

The Fund pays no remuneration to two of its trustees, David J. Schoenwald and Murray D. Rosenblith, who are also officers or employees of Accrued Equities.

Foreside Funds Distributors LLC (the “Distributor”) serves as the principal underwriter of the Fund pursuant to a Distribution Agreement for the limited purpose of acting as statutory underwriter to facilitate the distribution of shares of the Fund. The Distributor has entered into a Sub-Distribution Agreement with Accrued Equities. Effective May 1, 2017, the Fund charges a maximum front-end sales charge of 3.50% on most new sales of the Fund’s Class A Shares. Prior to May 1, 2017, the Fund charged a maximum front-end sales charge on Class A Shares of 4.75%. Of this amount, the Distributor and Accrued Equities receive the net underwriter commission and pay out the remaining sales commission to other brokers who actually sell new Class A Shares. Their share of the sales commission may vary. The aggregate underwriter commissions on all sales of Class A Shares of the Fund during the year ended December 31, 2018 was $14,598 and the amounts received by the Distributor and Accrued Equities were $4,866 and $9,732, respectively. The Distributor and Accrued Equities are also entitled to receive sales commissions for the sale of Class A Shares. For the year ended December 31, 2018, the Distributor and Accrued Equities received $2,222 and $14,201 in sales commissions, respectively, for the sale of Class A Shares of the Fund. Underwriter commissions and sales commissions received by the Distributor are set aside by the Distributor and used solely for distribution-related expenses.

Investor Shares of the Fund are not subject to a sales charge. The Fund has adopted a distribution plan (the “Rule 12b-1 Plan”) for its Investor Shares in accordance with the requirements of Rule 12b-1 under the 1940 Act. The Rule 12b-1 Plan provides that the Fund may pay a fee to Accrued Equities, the Distributor, or certain broker-dealers, investment advisers, banks or other financial institutions at an annual rate of up to 0.25% of the average daily net assets of the Fund’s Investor Shares to finance certain activities primarily intended to sell such Investor Shares. For the year ended December 31, 2018, 12b-1 Fees of $8,658 were accrued by the Investor Shares of the Fund.

The Board of Trustees has authorized the Class A Shares of the Fund to pay sub-transfer agent fees to financial intermediaries, including securities dealers, that provide shareholder account-related services to their customers who own Class A Shares of the Fund, or to reimburse Accrued Equities for such expenses it reimbursed on behalf of the Class A Shares. The sub-transfer agent services provided must be necessary and may not duplicate services already provided by a Fund service provider. The sub-transfer agent services may not be for distribution-related services. The fees paid by the Class A Shares may not exceed the fees that would have been incurred by customers of the financial intermediaries if they maintained their customer account directly with the Fund.

5) TRUSTEES’ FEES – For the year ended December 31, 2018, the Fund paid trustees’ fees of $31,000 to its Trustees who are not “interested persons” of the Trust, as that term is defined in the 1940 Act (the “Independent Trustees”).

For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2018, each Independent Trustee received an annual fee of $7,000 for their services as an Independent Trustee of the Trust. As Vice-Chairperson of the Trust’s Board of Trustees, Sharon Reier received an additional annual fee of $1,000. Each member of the Audit Committee received an additional $500 annual fee and Susan Hickey, Chairperson of the Audit Committee, received an additional annual fee of $500. The Independent Trustees are also entitled to receive reimbursement of “coach” travel expenses to attend Board Meetings. The Trustees and Officers of the Trust who are officers and employees of the Advisor do not receive compensation from the Fund for their services and are paid for their services by the Advisor. The Fund’s Chief Compliance Officer is not an officer or employee of the Advisor and is compensated directly by the Fund for his services.

6) PURCHASES AND SALES OF SECURITIES – For the year ended December 31, 2018, the aggregate cost of securities purchased totaled $31,537,340. Net realized gains (losses) were computed on a specific lot basis. The proceeds received on sales of securities for the year ended December 31, 2018 was $51,692,086.

7) FEDERAL INCOME TAX INFORMATION – At December 31, 2018, the federal tax basis cost and aggregate gross unrealized appreciation and depreciation of securities held by the Fund were as follows:

Cost of investments for tax purposes	$167,439,748
Unrealized appreciation for tax purposes	$ 17,441,052
Unrealized depreciation for tax purposes	(22,542,730)
Net unrealized depreciation on investments and foreign currency translation	$ (5,101,678)

The tax character of distributions paid during 2018 and 2017 was as follows:

Distributions paid from:	2018	2017
Ordinary Income	$ 1,898,080	$3,796,765
Long-Term Capital Gains	9,030,031	4,777,900
	$10,928,111	$8,574,665

For federal income tax purposes, distributions from net investment income and short-term capital gains are treated as ordinary income dividends.

As of December 31, 2018, the components of distributable earnings (deficit) on a tax basis were as follows:

Distributions in Excess of Net Investment Income	$ (767,852)
Net Unrealized Depreciation on Investments and Foreign Currency Translations*	(5,101,678)
	$ (5,869,530)

* The primary difference between distributable earnings on a book and tax basis is due to wash sale losses, investments in partnerships and other book tax cost differences.

Management has analyzed the Fund's tax positions taken on federal income tax returns for all open tax years (current and prior three tax years), and has concluded that no provision for federal income tax is required in the Fund's financial statements. The Fund's federal and state income and federal excise tax returns for tax years for which the applicable statutes of limitations have not expired are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service and state departments of revenue.

8) SUBSEQUENT EVENTS – Management has evaluated the impact of all subsequent events on the Fund through the date the financial statements were issued and has determined that there was the following subsequent events requiring disclosure:

Effective January 1, 2019, each Independent Trustee shall receive an annual fee of $8,000 for their services as an Independent Trustee of the Trust. All other Trustees' fees will remain the same as disclosed above under Note 5 - Trustees' Fees.

In 2018, the Chief Compliance Officer received additional compensation for additional services provided to the Trust. The additional compensation was paid by the Fund.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Shareholders and Board of Trustees of New Alternatives Fund

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of assets and liabilities of in New Alternatives Fund (the “Fund”), including the schedule of investments, as of December 31, 2018, and the related statement of operations for the year then ended, the statements of changes in net assets for each of the years in the two-year period then ended and the financial highlights for each of the years in the five-year period then ended for Class A shares and for each of the years in the four-year period then ended for Investor shares, and the related notes (collectively referred to as the “financial statements”). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Fund as of December 31, 2018, and the results of its operations for the year then ended, the changes in its net assets for each of the years in the two-year period then ended and its financial highlights for each of the years in the five-year period then ended for Class A shares and for each of the years in the four-year period then ended for Investor shares, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Fund’s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Fund’s financial statements based on our audits. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (“PCAOB”) and are required to be independent with respect to the Fund in accordance with the U.S. federal securities law and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. The Fund is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. As part of our audits we are required to obtain an understanding of internal control over financial reporting but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund’s internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.

Our audits included performing procedures to assess the risk of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our procedures included confirmation of securities owned as of December 31, 2018 by correspondence with the custodian and other appropriate parties, or by other appropriate auditing procedures where replies from other appropriate parties were not received. Our audits also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.
